Andy -
In the past 4 years we have sought our goals - some we have found, some we have yet to achieve. I'm glad I had a friend to share my goals with. Good luck! Lou Bruni RMA

Andy -
Don't forget how we used to worry about acting tests and trig tests to figure the answers and our grades before we received them. Remember those boring days with the underclassmen in Junior lunch. Well, 4 years have gone by quickly and though they were tough at times we made it successfully. long /luck in Rutgers next year. I hope ch the Medical Technologists you've always wanted. I know success in whatever you do. good summer!
Thinking of you.

Dear Andy,
Remember Ed
the "fun" we had in Art/Phy. class with the cats. Personally, I thought the whole class was a joke. Have a good time at college & don't work too hard as a lowly, ungodly freshmen (again).
See ya! Judy

Dear Andy,
Remember all those times you used to help me cheat on notebook? I never would of made it without you - Thanks for all the papers and corrective tape. I'll repay you someday.
Have an excellent summer
Good luck in all you do —

ADMINISTRATION FACULTY

The faculty of SAH will always grow with the students until the glorious school's end. Without the faculty, the school could obviously not perform. They, as a unit, make up the inner heart of SAH, the well oiled gears that turn to run the machine. The instructors function Inward, inside the school, as each class comes and goes, learning from the students as well as teaching new and innovative ideas. They function Inward, outside the school, in aiding in activities and sports, leading and teaching the right ways.

SENIORS

As the students who entered SAH four years ago as freshmen, we waited anxiously to be upperclassmen. Upon becoming sophomores, we grew accustomed to the daily routines of our brief lives at SAH. When we came together as juniors, we looked ahead to the future — to college, to jobs or to becoming seniors and leaders of SAH. Once Seniors, we, looking ahead, looked back fondly at the place that held us for four years. Directions now point to the roads ahead. Life leads us onward . . . .

FRONTWARD FORWARD UPWARD

Each class has its own characteristic leaders and followers. What they possess mostly is latent ability. Under the direction of the teachers, they can learn to use their abilities to the fullest potential. Aspiring Freshman find the path difficult as they strive Upward. Sophomores must go Forward to more fully develop their possibilities for learning and moving to a more advanced position. The Juniors, already Frontward, strain at the leash in their pull toward responsible leadership to attain the Upward place with its superior status.

What is amiss? Anne Marie Pesca, freshman, has her equipment for lab period; yet, she has a problem as her hand signifies.

SPORTS

The sports in this school are marching Onward. Making obvious changes for the better helped the school, if not in the win column, in spirit and support of SAH teams. These teams have yet to reach their peaks that the loyal and true supporters know they can attain. Iron Mikes possess all the components that they need to win. A different arrangement of these elements provides winning and losing seasons. Whether SAH wins or loses, the records will never show the feeling of the excited spectator or the jubilant player.

ONWARD

Trying to arouse some team spirit, senior Jerome Martucci cheers on his fellow Iron Mikes.

Football Team, unbeaten, despite winless season

Although the SAH football team was winless, one would have trouble finding a beaten player.

The basic problem as Coach Kevin Hardiman saw it, "... arose from the lack of experience and of fundamental knowledge among new players entering varsity ranks."

A number of the Varsity Team earned recognition, however, for their abilities. Among these are Jeffery Luther, All-County First Team punter, CVC First Team punter; David Jones, All-County Honorable Mention right back, CVC Honorable Mention, Hamilton Elks Senior Eleven; Gregory Mershon, All-County Second Team offensive guard, CVC First Team, Hamilton Elks Senior Eleven; Michael Weaver, All-County Honorable Mention right back, CVC Honorable Mention, Hamilton Elks, Senior Eleven; Earl Chiacchio, All-County Second Team defensive tackle, CVC Honorable Mention; and Jeffrey Klein, CVC Honorable Mention.

Racing for the goal line, senior Bill Sessa goes untouched for six points.

The Ewing quarterback looks for a way out as Greg Mershon, senior; Joe Phelan, senior; and Nick Compagnucci, junior, come in for the kill.

Attempting to get around a Trenton defender, senior Mike Weaver rambles around end for yardage.

Once again, junior midfielder Vinnie Palmere thwarts an opposing onrush by Lawrence.

Trying to direct his team to a win, senior midfielder Joe Consiglio passes a Trenton High defender as senior George Obaranec looks on.

Mid-season wins place Soccer in tournament

The Iron Mikes soccer team of '78, coached by Mr. Anthony Potenza and Father Patrick Fitzpatrick completed its season record with a 12-6-2 record. The mid-season record qualified the team for the State Tournament but a second-round loss to St. Joseph's, Metuchen, ended state Championship hopes.

A potent offense, a key factor in Mikes' defense also came through in crucial matters. The team, plagued by injuries, also endured the loss of tri-captain Warren Maruca who suffered a broken ankle.

Standouts were not lacking. Kevin Kinnevy and Thomas Tuffy, two high-scoring strikers, made First Team All-County Squad. The team's goalie, Roy Brooks, another key link in the chain of soccer successes, merited the County's Second Best Goal-ie.

Four Runners attain All - County recognition

Outstanding runners who led the 1978 Cross Country team and merited All - County Honorable Mention were Mark Ammann and Kevin Poirier, seniors; Gino Benedetti, junior; and Brian Maloney, sophomore.

Supporters of the team include seniors, Jeannette Cleary, William Taylor, John Bucci, and David Csillan; junior Joseph Potocki; sophomore John Hornyak; freshman James Geraci. Coach John Lally has the assistance of John Connolly.

In game with rival Notre Dame, Matt Suta, senior, tries to snatch a rebound.

Passing half-mark, Boys' Basketball holds 11-4 record

Past half-mark, the boys' basketball team maintains an 11-4 record. When the team reached the 10-point margin, they succumbed to nationally top-ranked Dematha.

Dematha, the school administered by Trinitarian Fathers in Hyattsville, MD, met the Iron Mikes January 14, 1979, at the Trenton Central High gym. Before a capacity crowd of 2,000 plus, SAH gave Dematha a tough but losing fight (69-64) which gained SAH recognition.

Two reasons exist for team's spectacular success — coaching of Mr. Carmen Nitti and the balanced attack of his players.

The five starters, seniors, complement each other. John Bucci, 20-point scorer per game presents defensive threat. Roy Brooks and Andrew Kusnirik hit double figures. John Amodio is hard on boards and defense while Bill Taylor provides playmaking and defense on press.

Senior John Bucci, one of Iron Mikes tri-captains, weaves his way through Hamilton defense.

After scoring his 1,000th point, Roy Brooks accepts congratulations and the game ball from Associate Principal Mr. Richard Carson.

Mrs. Carol Brooks gives Roy a motherly hug immediately following her son's acceptance of his 1,000-point award.

That was the shot which made the jump from 998 to 1,000 in Roy Brooks' basketball career.

Roy Brooks attains 1,000 point standing in St. Anthony game

In the game with St. Anthony, Jersey City, February 11, Roy Brooks passed the 1,000-point barrier, a feat last accomplished at this school by Joseph Puhalski who reached the same mark in his senior year, 1976.

Having joined the varsity squad in his sophomore year, Roy now averages 15 points a game and provides the team with needed rebounding power.

The 1,000-point feat did not concern Roy as much as the approaching tournament. He stated at the time of his 1,000-point mark, "The state championship is what I want, and I'm going to play as hard as I can to get it."

Roy intends to continue his athletic career at college.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bucci's pride in their son John glows outwardly as he displays the Paul VI game ball and his 1,000-point award. His mother's red roses denote John's basketball milestone.

In last four seconds of the game with Paul VI, Bucci hits 1,000th point

Roy Brooks and John Amodio having fouled out, John Bucci on the foul line scored his 1,000 points during the last four seconds in the Mikes games with Paul VI (Haddonfield), March 2.

"It couldn't have come at a better time," said Bucci who scored his 1,000th point in the pressure-packed situation to seal the 56-53 win over Paul VI in the NJSIAA South Jersey Parochial A Tournament.

Bucci added, "I was glad to get it over with so I could relax." Until his "grand" foul shot, no one in the sold-out Mikes' gym was able to get any relaxation.

John Bucci becomes the fifth Iron Mike to top 1,000.

Iron Mike teammates carry John Bucci aloft after making his 1,000 career point in game with Paul VI — a 56-53 victory for St. Anthony.

CBA Colts avenge Mikes' taking crown in 1978 tournament

Iron Mike reserves, senior Matt Suta (30) and junior Jim Smiegocki (31) provide a pressing situation for Paul VI, Haddonfield, in a 56-53 tournament win for St. Anthony.

After the Mikes' 69-56 win over Holy Spirit, Absecon, and 56-53 win over Paul VI, Haddonfield, the team tried its final tournament game against Christian Brothers Academy, March 7 to clinch the NJSIAA South Jersey Parochial A crown.

But the CBA Colts avenged the last year's overtime loss to the Iron Mikes in the South Jersey final in almost the same manner SAH did a year ago.

CBA's Marty Lutschannig's field goal with 11 seconds remaining was the final margin in the Colts Parochial A South Jersey 43-41 win over St. Anthony at Manalapan High. Nor did John Bucci's shot for the basket falling short in the final seconds of the game turn the victory.

In the Mikes' game with CBA, Roy Brooks (22), pressured by avenging Colts, tries for the basket.

Destined to win, Girls' Basketball obtains 11-1 record

The girls' basketball team, under the direction of second-year coaches, Mr. Kevin Gallagher and Miss Alice Agocs, destined for big things this year, have proven their worth.

Returning to the starting lineup are senior Ann Ermi and junior Katherine Larkin and Patricia Sikinger. At the mid-point in the season, the Iron Mike girls boasted an 11-1 record, the only loss coming at the hands of State Power St. Rose of Belmar.

In the opening round of the Christmas Tournament, the Mikes defeated Steinert and turned back archrival Notre Dame to take the Championship. Kate Larkin earned an All-Tournament team berth.

The girls will now be competing in the State Tournament as well as looking for another CVC title.

Star junior Kate Larkin, co-captain, displays talent to shoot that ball against Trenton High.

Senior co-captain Ann Ermi goes in untouched for a layup.

On her way to becoming the all-time leading scorer in Mercer County basketball, junior Kate Larkin amasse the clinching point.

Kate Larkin wins coveted county scoring crown

Surpassing Diane Olech's 95-game career mark of 1,697, Kate Larkin claimed the title, all-time (boys and girls) leading scorer in Mercer County basketball history, during the team's 64-44 triumph over Hamilton, February 23.

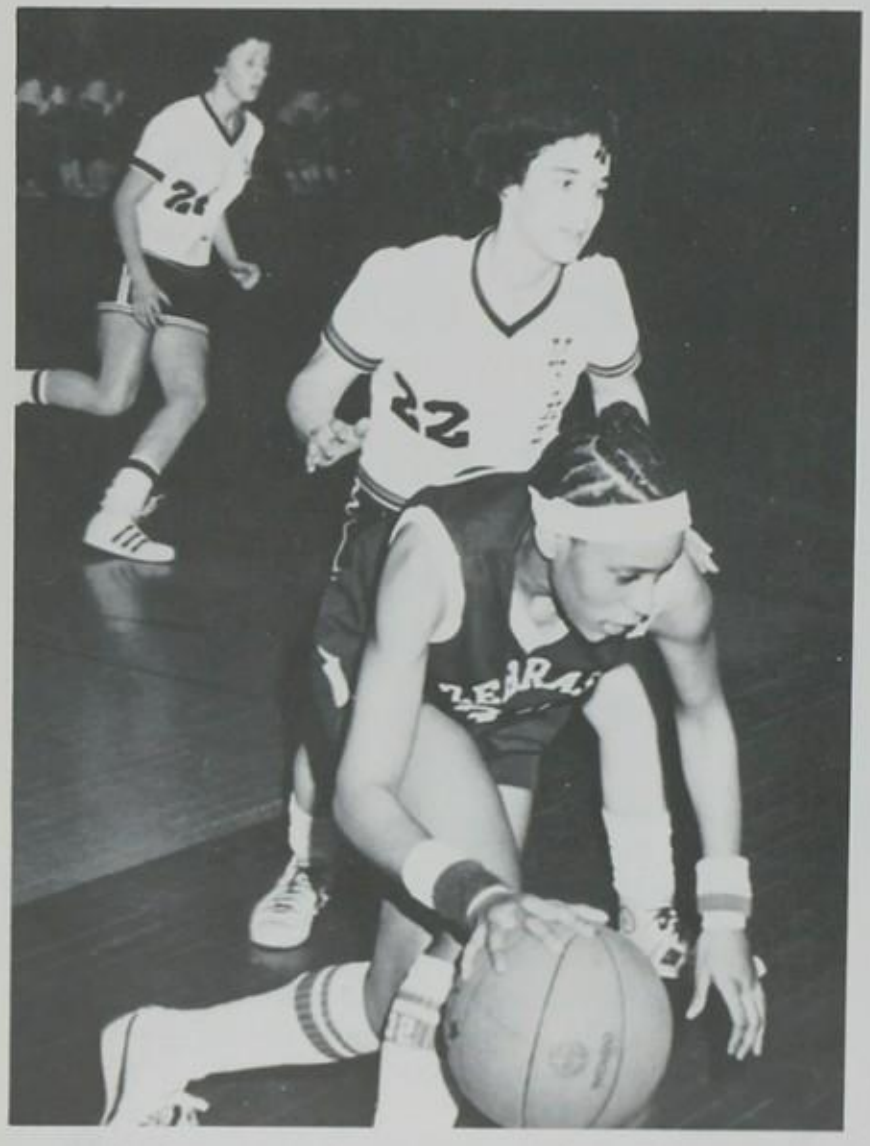
This Iron Mike junior has amassed a total of 1,709 points during her 71-game career. This record tops the score of Diane Olech, graduate of Notre Dame High who held the record since 1977.

Concerning the act of winning her new title Kate said, "I made the layup at the beginning of the game and I thought I'd get it out of the way."

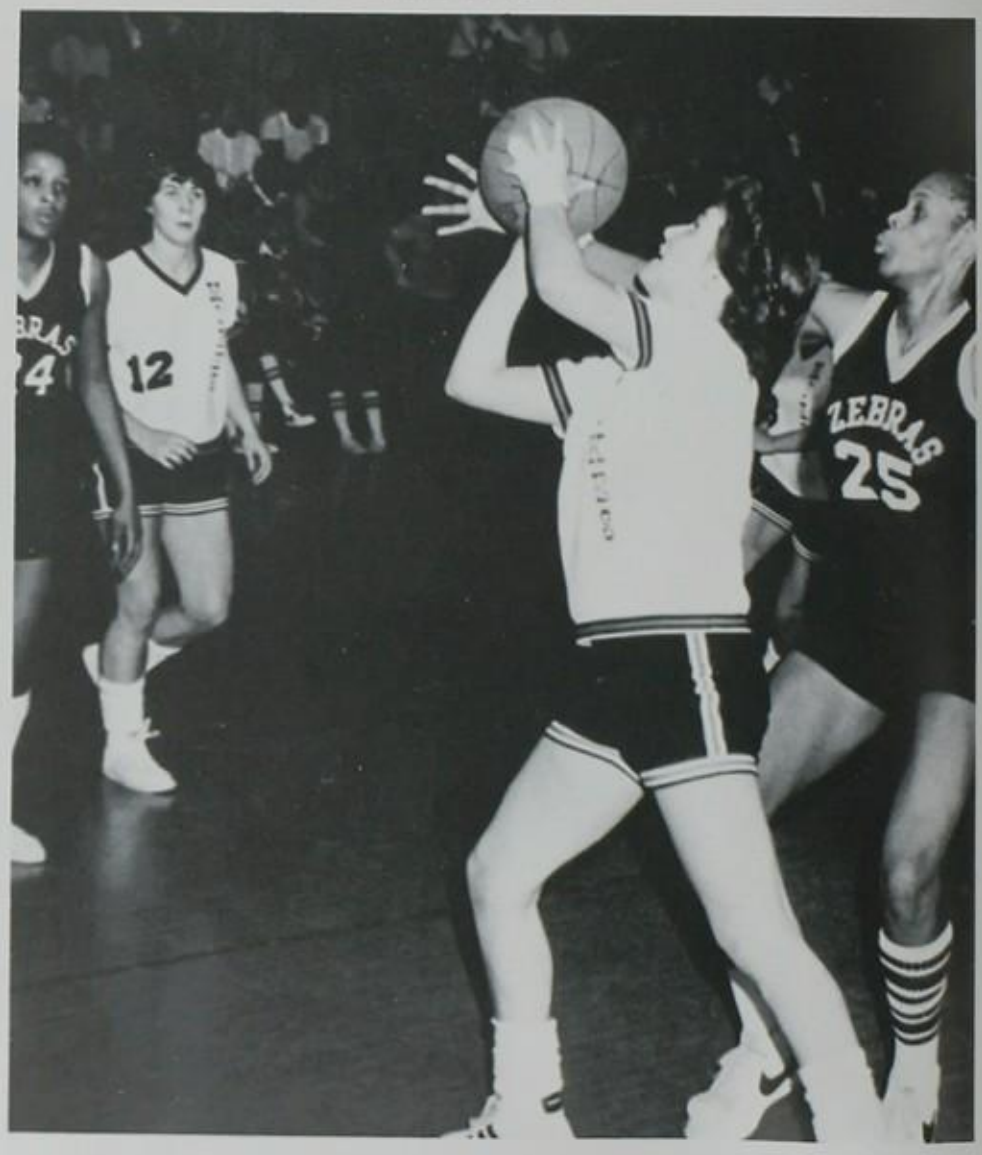
Diane Olech, former record holder was there to present a card of congratulations and a broken record to Kate.

Junior Lisa Vaccaro (25) attempts to connect on a layup while St. Rose's Mary Manutti (15) applies pressure.

Enroute by bus to the Lady Mikes final game of the tournament with Holy Family Academy of Bayonne, Coach Kevin Gallagher sports two St. Patrick's Day carnations and an optimistic view.



"Tough defense" seems to run through junior Joanne Bucci's mind as she slows down Doris Hill (32) of New Brunswick High.



Defensive pressure from New Brunswick's Terry Braithwaite doesn't affect Pam Mason's shooting ability. Ann Ermi looks on.

Lady Mikes become first Mercer County NJSIAA state champs

Playing team basketball the way coach Kevin Gallagher preaches it, the Lady Mikes on St. Patrick's day became Mercer County's first-ever NJSIAA state girls champions. The girls won this Group Two crown with a 67-55 verdict over Holy Family Academy of Bayonne at North Brunswick High.

In the two games prior to Holy Family, the girls basketball team had already snatched the NJSIAA central and south Jersey crowns. The 56-53 win over Zebras of New Brunswick clinched the central Jersey title, March 10. Pitted against Haddonfield High, March 14, the girls scored a 60 - 51 victory to capture first-ever sectional title — south Jersey champs.

Leading the girls into this triple crown were the first tournament wins: Voorhees (57-47) and St. Rose (54 - 45).

In the game against Haddonfield, which gave the Lady Mikes the title, Group Two NJSIAA south Jersey champs, senior Ann Ermi makes a jump shot.

Junior Patty Sikinger in game with Holy Family Academy, Bayonne, goes in for a layup.

Individual scoring on Spring Track will produce points

Again lack of depth and experience threaten to plague the Iron Mikes track team for 1979 season.

Despite the team record, each meet produces impressive individual efforts. Seniors, Joseph Schoen (sprinter), Kevin Poirier (distance), Mark Ammann (distance), John Petrilla (javelin), Anthony Morlando (shotput), John Tesauro (shotput and discus) and John Jacko (shotput and discus) are members who score every outing.

Outstanding performances also come from juniors: Jeffrey Klein (pole vault), Joseph Potocki (distance), John Williams (distance) and John Moreale (shotput).

Senior Kevin Poirier races through on the outside lane to gain position in the one-mile run.

Extreme concentration of body and mind motivates senior Bob Roman to throw shotput farther each time.

Running in the mile, Jeannette Cleary races for a startling finish.

Throwing the shotput for the Iron Mikes, John Tesauro displays his skill.

Coach John Lally and statistician Deborah Brown observe the Iron Mikes track team moving toward "great expectations."

Iron Mikes' sprinters race against time and other factors to acquire a point.

Senior Joseph Schoen takes some minutes to relax at practice.

Distance runner Mark Ammann displays his uniform at start of spring practice season.

Shotputter and discus-thrower Anthony Morlando shows his winning form to gain a first place.

Gracefully flowing through the air, William Holmes gains footage in the long jump.

Track 'weight men' repeatedly tally bulk of team points

The 'weight men,' led by Anthony Morlando, throw up to 45 feet in shotput. Along with the efforts of John Tesauro, John Jacko, John Petrilla and John Moreale, these weight men repeatedly tally the bulk of the team points.

The bulwark of the sprinting squad consists of Joseph Schoen, Joseph Potocki, junior, William Holmes, senior and William Koba, senior, who consistently place in the 100, 220, 440, 880 and mile relay.

Despite past team records, optimism is on the rise under the watchful and experienced eye of mentor John Lally.

Establishing a good footing to start the two-mile run, seniors Mark Ammann and Kevin Poirier wait for the gun to go off.

Nucleus of 3-year Varsity will make Diamond History

SAH's 1979 baseball team has promise of placing the Iron Mikes in diamond history since twelve of its senior players also were a part of the 1976 CVC Championship Squad.

Mr. Adrian Seitz, pilot coach, replacing Mr. Anthony Potenza who left SAH in February 1979, states his optimism about the team's potential. Mr. Seitz has a good nucleus of three-year varsity veterans: Stephen McCormick, Kevin Kinnevy, William Sessa and Thomas Anama.

Players predicted to be valuable contributors are crafty pitchers Robert Serenelli and Thomas Anama, steady infielders Kenneth Tozzi and William Taylor, catcher Kenneth Univerzagt and slugger Gregory Mershon.

Mershon comments, "I know we will definitely be a top contender — we won the title as freshmen with the same players we have now."

Sliding into second base, junior Ken Tozzi appears to avoid the tag.

Third baseman Bill Taylor awaits a throw to put out a Lawrence runner.

As one of the team's leading hitters, senior Steve "Stick" McCormick usually puts on a good show for the fans.

Attempting to bunt his way on base, senior Kevin Kinnevy tries to sacrifice base runners to scoring position.

Unloading a curve ball, senior hurler Bob Serenelli provides some needed relief.

Rounding third base, Kevin Kinnevy checks to see if his path home is safe.

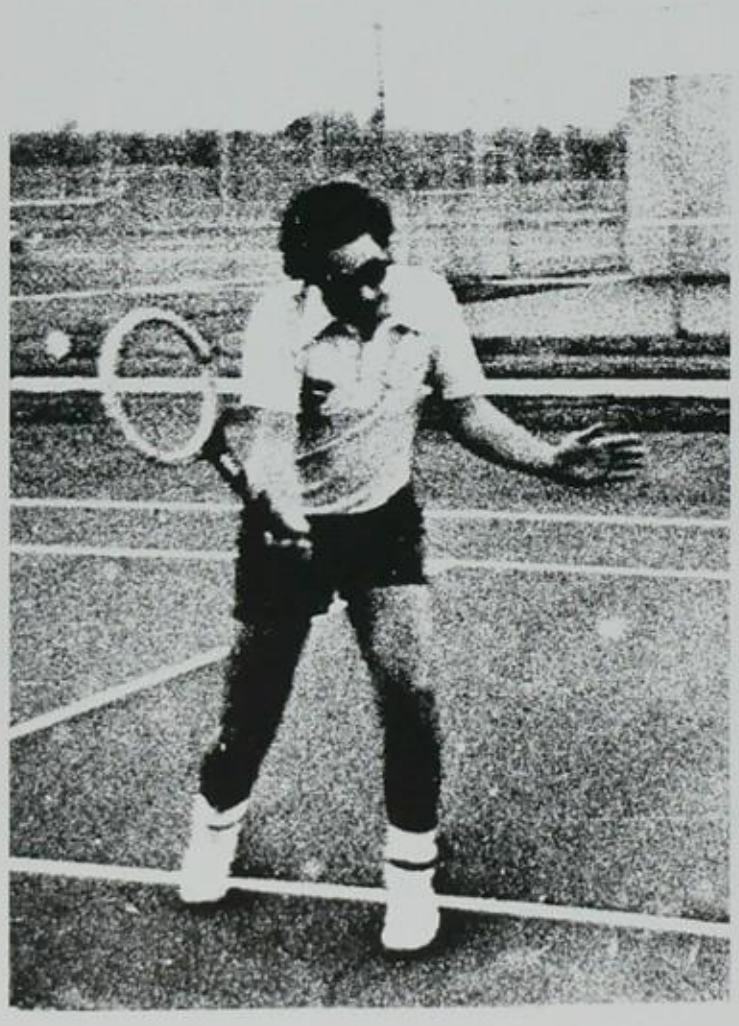
Tennis Team uses veterans as team basis

With the expected return of veteran players and the arrival of certain others, the SAH 1978-79 tennis team seems set for a fine season. Led by USTA registered instructor Mr. Robert Conti, coach, the team tries to improve 1978 record of seven wins, ten losses.

A unit of veterans: Joseph Consiglio, senior, David Palombi, senior, William Ellis, junior and Mark Ellis, sophomore, promise a season of forehands and backhands. With new prospects Mr. Conti will develop three top singles players and two sets of double players for competition.

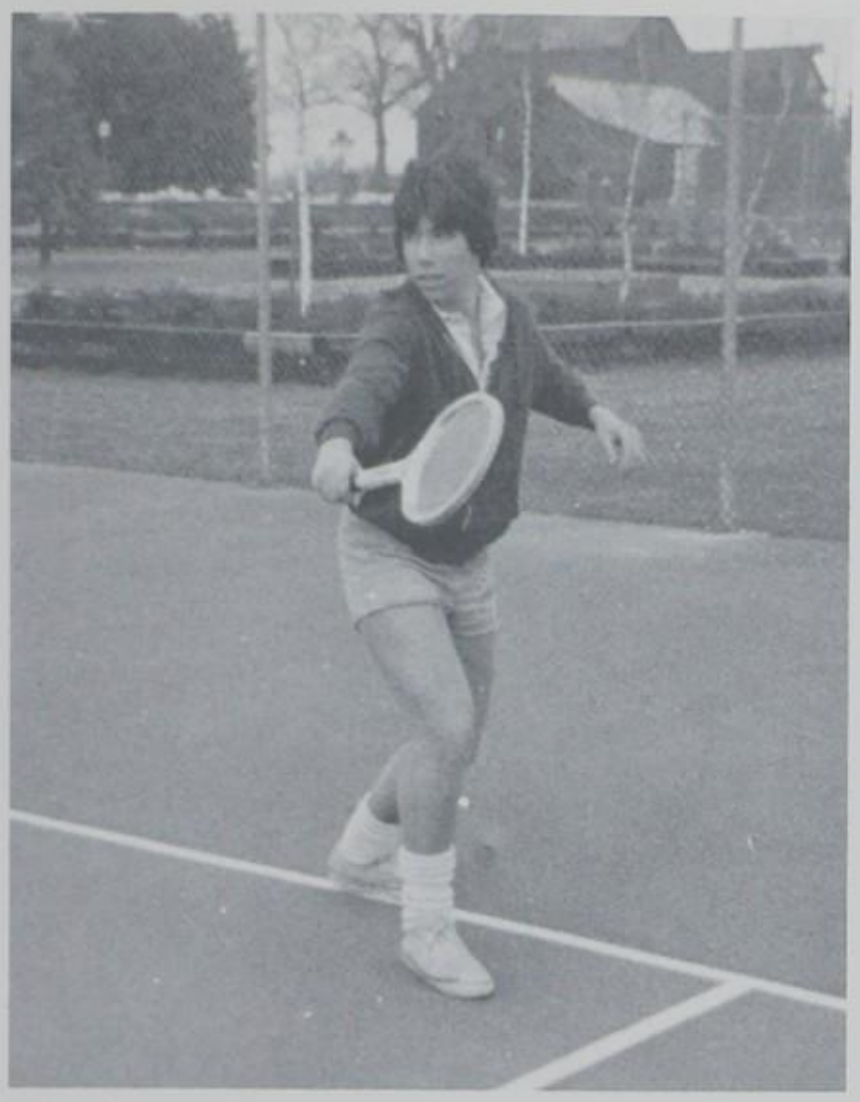
Last year's team MVP Joe Consiglio states, "I feel last season provided a good building year, and this year's team will fare especially well in CVC competition."

While playing singles, senior Joseph Consiglio makes use of a spin serve.



Preparing for a forehand volley, senior David Palombi makes use of vital concentration.

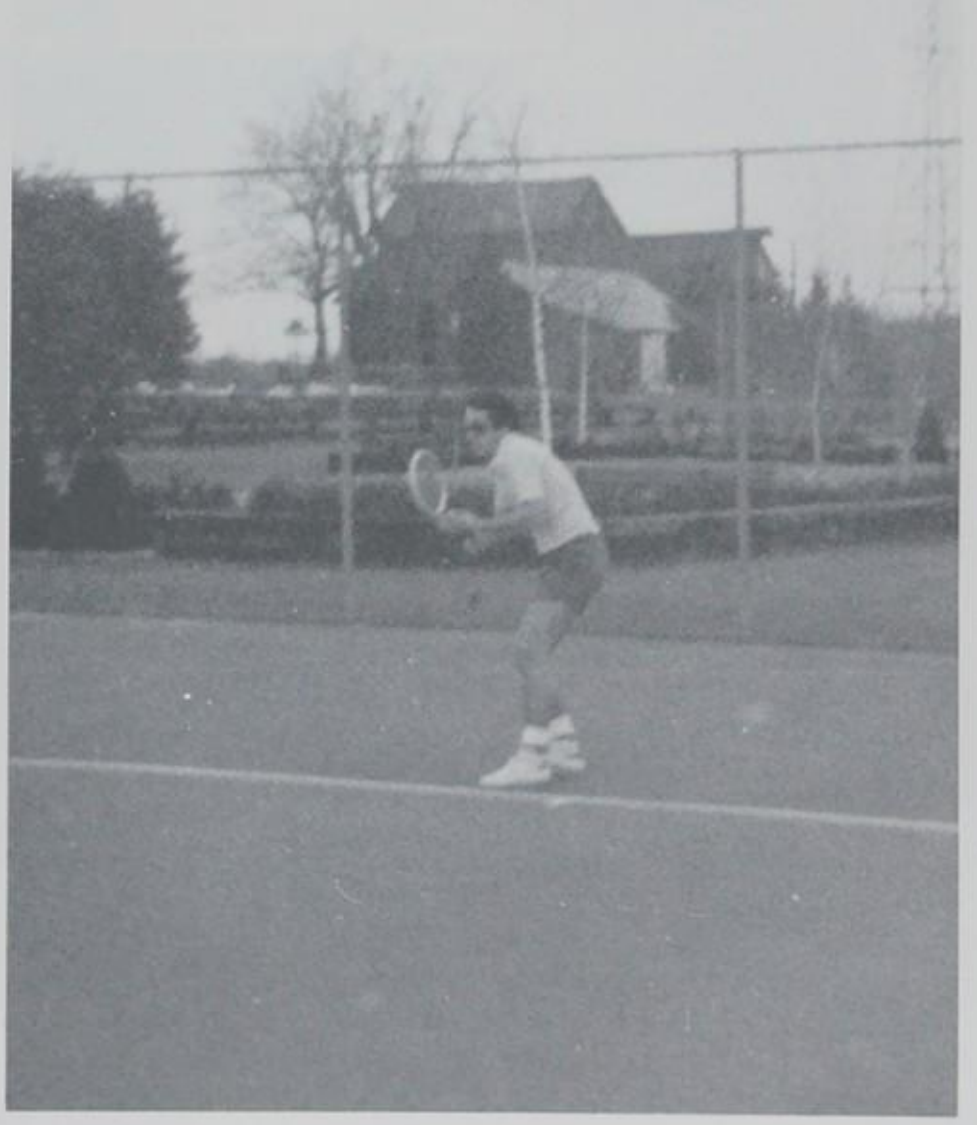
Getting the racquet back, senior Bruce Inverso gets ready for a forehand.



After hitting backhand, Bruce Inverso watches the ball fly.

Waiting for the ball to appear, Joseph Consiglio gets in the ready position for a backhand volley.

Using unique form, junior Bill Ellis uses much power to hit a forehand.



Leading the team in aces last year, Dave Palombi prepares to hit his first serve.

Softball Team moves onward with Bushelli, former coach of JV squad, in pilot seat

Senior Ann Ermi smacks with force for another out.

On her way for another homerun. Marcella Friedman, sophomore, smacks the sphere.

ACTIVITIES

Most of the activities occur Afterward when school is over and students don't have to be there for one of the many possible activities. The time given and sacrifices made may not always surmount the personal satisfaction gained but most often does for those who realize the true purpose of their deeds. Those who actively participate help themselves to gain school spirit through almost any activity. Most of the people involved benefit Afterward when the activity is over. These benefits provide the pleasant memories of the future.

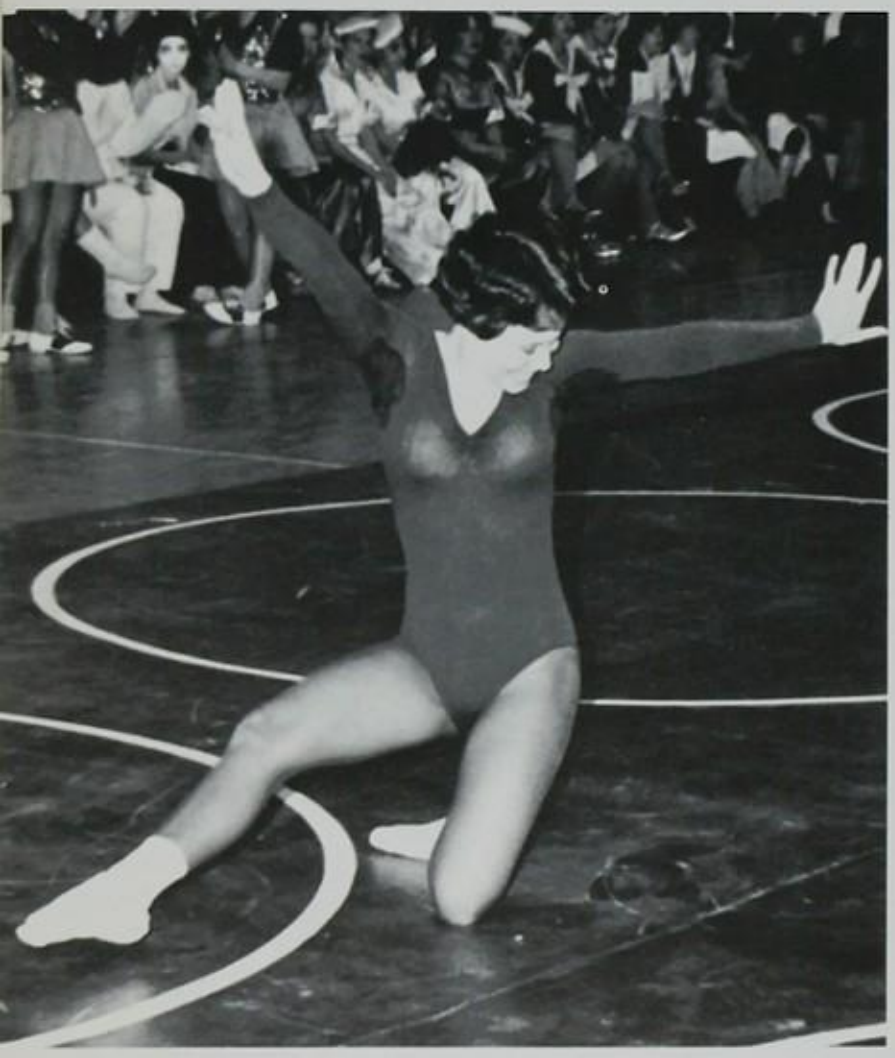
GAA's 14th Show honors Big Apple

The 14th annual GAA Show honored the Big Apple by displaying in the school Gym the theme, "New York, New York," during its dress rehearsal on Sunday Afternoon, November 5 and Tuesday to Friday Evenings, September 7, 8, 9, 10.

Mistress of Ceremonies, Elizabeth McManimon, twirled flags before holding aloft the winning color. Either pair of captains, Karen Auletta, Lisa Jaroni of the Brown Team or Marybeth Candelori, Michelle Palmere of the Gold Team, raced toward the stage for their winning color.

Among the top outstanding events were the gold Rockettes, led by seniors Gina Maisto and Patricia Muscato in "Dames at Sea." After sailing to victory in Best Event category, these girls competed at Bethesda, MD, on December 17 where they earned Second Place.

Gold Team Captains, Marybeth Candelori and Michelle Palmere, await the presentation of the victory trophy by Mistress of Ceremonies Elizabeth McManimon.



Throughout her exhibition of gymnastic ability, freshman Cynthia Revesz strikes her pose in her breathtaking performance of "Cabaret."

The Rockettes, led by seniors Gina Maisto and Patricia Muscato, capture First Place Best Event in their rendition of "Dames at Sea."

Court Jester Gina Maisto not only entertains her King, Celia Gerdes, senior, but also captivates her audience with her balance beam performance.

"Go Grease Lightning!" Senior Anne Scaccetti leads her mechanics to an electrifying four-night victory.

Poppin' Fresh Doughboys, led by sophomore Maria Barbato, roll into First Place Best Costume.

Sophomore Gumball, Joan Grochala, followed frantically by Robin French, sophomore, tumbles out of machine to bounce her way into the judges' favor.

Brown Team members shriek uncontrollably as their team racks up two more points.

Gold Team breaks tie with 71-69 victory.

Collecting the flag and two points, Brown Team Captains, Karen Auletta and Lisa Jaroni, accept Brown Flag from Mistress of Cerrmonies, Elizabeth McManimon.

Both teams won equal recognition until the final night when the Gold Team edged Brown 71-69.

These Brown Team events won on all four nights: West Side Story, Shoe Shine Boys (who performed twice each night), The Wizard of Oz (Gymnastics), Obstacle Course Races and Decorations. Their cover for programs, designed by Lisa Tysko won three nights as did The Fifth of Beethoven.

Four-night wins for the Gold Team were Grease Lightning, Gold Usherettes, Clowns, Cynthia Revesz's Floor Exercise and Gina Maisto's Balance Beam.

Brown Team won Non-Dance First Place Best Event (Wizard of Oz) and the Dance Second Place Best Event (Fifth of Beethoven).

Gold Team, besides winning the Dance First Place Best Event (Rockettes) also won Non-Dance Second Place Best Event and Best Costume (Doughboys).

Clockwise: In their award-winning gymnastic performance, "The Wizard of Oz," juniors Lynne Durastanti, Nancy Kurilla, Sharon Higham, and Patricia Gabauer displayed their talent that merited four-night wins. Junior Sharon Leile and freshman Marie Migliaccio show a fighting spirit as they battle for victory.

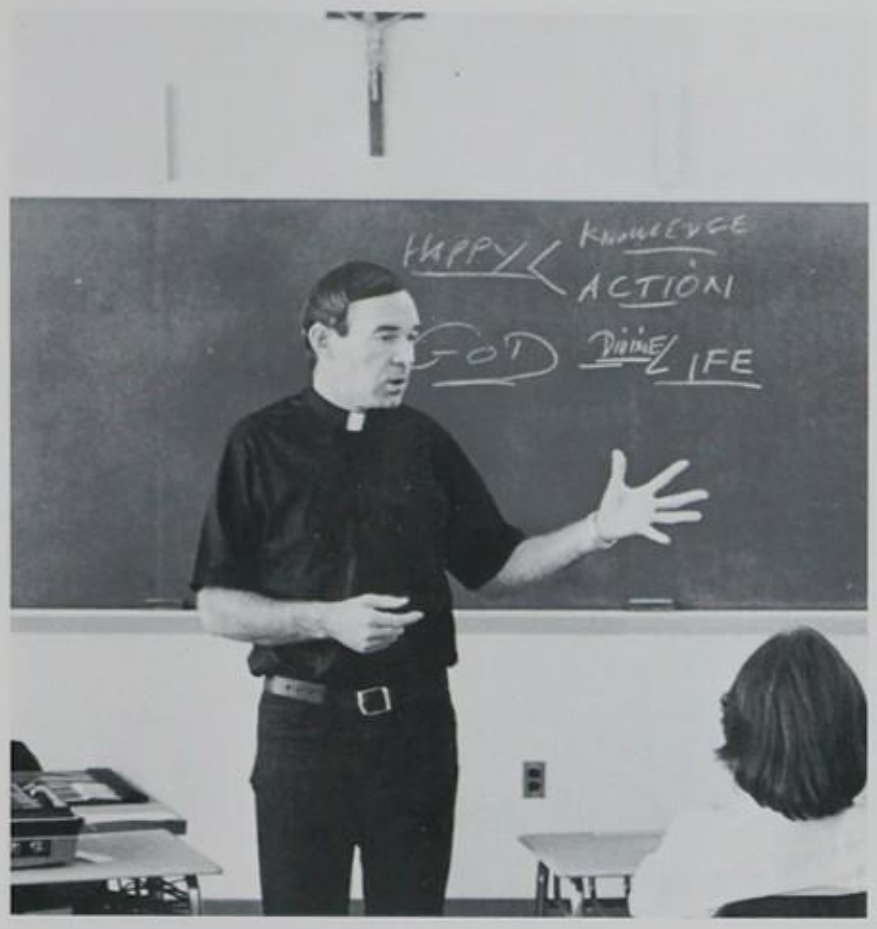
Would Beethoven recognize his Fifth Symphony as Juniors Kim Suydam, Nancy Kurilla and Sharon Higham speed it up to modern Disco?

On Community Day (February 8, 1979) of Catholic Schools Week, Monsignor Michael McCorristin, Director of SAH and Pastor of St. Anthony Parish concelebrated Mass with Pastors and Associate Pastors from area parishes for Faculty, Students, Mayor and honored guests.

At the Mass for Catholic Schools Week, seniors John Fell and Joseph Consiglio offer Monsignor bread and wine for the students at the Offertory.

One of the services of the Religion Department is to provide speakers for Vocation Week. Here sophomores listen to Fathers Michael and John of the Order Friar Minor Conventuals.

Parish Priests share Religious Services



Father Fitzpatrick instructs seniors in concepts of Christian Life.

The students and faculty share the blessings of Religious Services that Fathers Patrick Fitzpatrick and Liam Minogue of St. Anthony Prish give the school.

Both priests give valuable time from daily schedules to instruct and guide the students and to offer Masses on days of special observance. Father Fitzpatrick supplements teaching of Religion classes and Father Minogue, School Chaplain, schedules retreats and gives Religious counseling to students.

Sister Helen, Religion Chairperson, keeps Religious instruction timely by organizing with Fathers Fitzpatrick and Minogue Religious Services. These Services include instructions from visiting priests, lectures from priests and religious of various orders and congregations on vocations, Washington, D.C. trip for Pro-Life Movement and Mass concelebrated by area priests for Catholic Schools Week.

Carrying a Thanksgiving Basket offering from Juniors, John Williams follows his classmates Mary Crocker and Kathleen McGovern as they offer wine and bread to Father Minogue.

Offerings of bread and wine, as well as Thanksgiving Food Baskets, await Offertory of pre-Thanksgiving Mass.

Four years later Marching Unit returns to SAH

After a four-year absence, St. Anthony High School proudly welcomes back the Marching Band Unit. It is relevant that the marching unit rejuvenated the spirit and loyalty of SAH students. Judging from the response at the first Brown and Gold Day this year, the students enthusiastically received the unit. Joy, happiness and pride shone on the faces of the students as the band marched around the SAH Gym.

The unit came into existence under the direction of Band Director, Mr. Timothy Ketterer. Many dedicated students helped with the revitalization of the unit. Those responsible for leading the band into halftime victories are Renée Kardos, Drum Majorette and Thomas Herrera, Band Captain.

Members of the Marching Unit perform at all half-time shows. They had the honor of leading Bishop George W. Ahr in the blessing of Holy Cross Parish Center.

SAH Cheerleaders rotate at games

There are three squads of cheerleaders, a Freshman squad, a JV squad, and a Varsity squad. They cheer for their respective teams' games in soccer, football, and basketball. This year all three squads rotate on cheering for the Girls Varsity Basketball Team's home games.

The captains of the Freshman squad this year are Christine Girman and Joyce Papp, the JV squad captains are Linda Migliaccio and Clare Murray, and the Varsity captains are Gina Maisto and Beth Pihokken.

This year's squads are very hard-working and spirited. They began practices for this upcoming year in early August. Also members of the JV and Varsity squads attended the National Cheerleaders Associations cheerleading camp this summer.

All squads are moderated by Sister Therese along with the help of Miss Kathleen Woodcock.

Varsity Cheerleading Captains, Gina Maisto and Elizabeth Pihokken try to decide what cheer their girls are doing. Certainly not what they intended. Christine Seiler agrees.

Elizabeth McManimon reigns with court at homecoming game

On November 25, 1978, at halftime during the St Anthony-Notre Dame game, Elizabeth McManimon became the Homecoming Queen for the 1978-1979 school year. Diane Chiaccio, having finished her reign as last year's queen, along with Mr. Carson, crowned Elizabeth. David Csillan escorted Miss McManimon and Warren Maruca was her driver.

The Queen's Court consisted of the other four nominees. These included Thrersa Arcangelo escorted by Scott Warrack, driven by Louis Arcangelo; Lisa Jaroni escorted by Mark LaFerrara, driven by Douglas Blow; Linda Kmetz escorted by James DiLouie, driven by Andrew Demko; and Gina Maisto, escorted by Thomas Tuffy and driven by John San Paolo.

Around Homecoming Queen, Elizabeth McManimon, gathers her court: Theresa Arcangelo, Linda Kmetz, Gina Maisto and Lisa Jaroni.

Gina Maisto, a member of the Homecoming Court, parades with her escort, Thomas Tuffy.

Scott Warrack moves with Theresa Arcangelo of the Queen's Court through the Honor Guard of the Marching Band.

An ecstatic new queen, Elizabeth McManimon, accepts her crown from Associate Principal Richard Carson. Her escort David Csillan watches crowning.

With her escort Mark LaFerrara, Lisa Jaroni braves the cold weather to take part in Homecoming festivities.

Linda Kmetz and escort James DiLouie are standing proof of the winds that blew that Homecoming Day.

Seniors Christine Zapicchi, Doreen Bogacz, Teresa Lanzoni, Cynthia Barbato, Mary Normile and Lisa Evans wait to light candles at Z Club Induction.

Z Club organizes for leadership, service

The Z-Club is a service-oriented club, sponsored by Zonta International. Its purposes are to serve the school and the community, provide career guidance and encourage leadership in young women, and promote fellowship and better understanding in the world. Its motto is GROWTH THROUGH SERVICE.

This year, to serve the school, the club has elected to assist each department. The girls formed a committee, for example, to sew typewriter covers for the business department. To serve the community, each girl in the club has "adopted" a grandparent at Morris Hall, to whom she sends cards on holidays and pays occasional visits.

Membership is open to sophomore, junior, and senior girls who demonstrate good character and scholarship. The club advisors are Mrs. Stefane and her assistant Mrs. Ciocian.

The significance of the candle shows the willingness of new members to serve their community. Here Teresa Lanzoni lights her candle in presence of Zonta member, Miss Regina Flynn and Z Club adviser, Mr. Clara Stefane.

Z Club Induction starts with a prayer, led by Principal Sister Catherine. Standing are Reverend Barbara North of Zonta, in middle, and Mr. Marilyn Ciocian, on left, assistant adviser of Z Club.

Doreen Bogacz, senior, lights a candle, part of the Induction ceremonies for Z Club. Assisting the inductees are Zonta members Mrs. Claire Wagner and Mrs. Veronica Cary.

Mr. Clara Stefane, adviser of Z Club at SAH, meets with student President Deborah Pege prior to Z Club meeting to confirm plans.

Members of National Honor Society serve school, community

The Monsignor McCorristin Chapter of the National Honor Society recognizes and applauds young men and women of St. Anthony High School for outstanding scholastic achievements. To be nominated into the group, juniors and seniors must also demonstrate leadership, service and character. Membership becomes official at the Induction Ceremony held during the spring of each year.

Guided by Sr. Arlene and Mr. Keven Sirak, the group aims to serve the students of St. Anthony and the surrounding community. Members lend a helping hand at the PTA Fashion Show, the Spaghetti Supper, and various other projects. In December, the NHA journeys to Morris Hall to present a show filled with singing, dancing, and gifts. The NHS also offers tutoring services to any student at St. Anthony High School.

"Sing out with us," invite Joseph Potocki, David Palombi, John Tesauro and Michael Testa as they carol for Senior Citizens at Morris Hall, Lawvenceville, N.J.

SAH Key Club holds Marathon for 24 hours

The Key Club of St. Anthony High is a service-oriented club whose active members implement the 1978-79 Key Club International Theme, "Respond to Society's Needs," by carrying out a span of activities from putting on a Christmas Show for the residents of Mercer Care Center to aiding with the work at Monsignor Mc Corristin's Christmas Tree Farm.

The club's number one project, Volleyball Marathon, dominated the school gym for 24 hours on October 31 and November 1, 1978.

The Key Club, for its many community services, ranks number two in New Jersey. The club also received the Governor's Award for Outstanding Service. Mr. John Lally serves as the club's moderator and Mr. Calvin Jenkins as assistant moderator.

At Induction ceremony at Steinert High, these young ladies of St. Anthony High Future Secretaries Association assemble with their co-adviser, Mrs. Doris Radice. Girls are Lisa Evans, senior, Cynthia Barbato, senior, Anita Lucidi, junior, Barbara Pallotti, senior, Karen Auletta, senior, Donna French, junior.

In Mrs. Radice's Typing II/Transcription class, these members of FSA practice for efficiency. They are Donna French, front; Lisa Evans and Cynthia Barbato, middle; Barbara Pallotti and Anita Lucidi, back.

President of FSA, Karen Auletta, discusses the association's activities with Mrs. Radice, co-adviser.

FSA assists activities

Initiation of new members and installation of president Karen Auletta of Trentonette Chapter Future Secretaries Association occurred Tuesday evening, October 17, 1978 in Steinert High School Auditorium at a Candlelight ceremony. Members of FSA are active at SAH typing for activities.

Those representing SAH in this association are seniors Karen Auletta, Barbara Pallotti, Cynthia Barbato, Lisa Evans; juniors Donna French, Anita Lucidi; sophomores Ornella Bottoni, Maria Chiarello and Donna Ciccone. Co-advisers are Mr. Doris Radice and Mrs. Veola Williams.

Student Council moderator, Miss Lois Yencha, shares a humorous incident with senior officers: Renée Kardos, Theresa Kelly, Denise Kostrub and Lisa Jaroni.

Student Council reaches goals through 'action'

To obtain goals, the 1978-79 Student Council performs outstanding council leadership in the school. Maintaining its purpose, SC works with the administration in upholding the philosophy of SAH. Scheduled events and activities raise the student body morale and spirit to a level of honor and pride.

Student Council reinforces its goal for more student involvement by endless hours of organizing and "putting into action what they preach." The newly formed Public Relations Committee adds a special touch by publicizing Student Council events. Student involvement has increased so much that dances, formally sponsored by SC in the Cafeteria, have now moved into the Gym. Brown and Gold Days combine spirit and fun.

Miss Lois Yencha, Student Council moderator, keeps all running smoothly.

Associate Principal, Mr. Richard Carson, plans 1978-79 activities with Student Council officers: Andrew Demko, Vice-President; Linda Kmetz, Secretary; Mark LaFerrara, Treasurer and Joseph Tattoni, President.

The Antonian records newsworthy school happenings

The Antonian, school newspaper, keeps members of faculty and student body informed concerning newsworthy events affecting school and community.

A senior staff of eight writers, six page editors, four typists and a photographer, Joseph Schoen, under the direction of Miss Lucine Fabian and Sister Grace Pierre, combine journalistic talent to produce a high-quality publication. At the end of 1978 school year, the National Scholastic Press Association in recognition of the Antonian's quality awarded First-Class rating.

Corristin involves after-school time

Producing the Corristin involves a large staff and a seven-month after-school time slot.

The 1978-79 staff, realizing the option of underclassmen, provided them a chance to have individual protraits taken in November for the yearbook. In a section spread similar to the Senior Section they have individual black and white pictures — a "first" at SAH.

Also did the editors and staff decide to bring back on the cover the school seal not used since 1973.

Colored Introduction and Divider Pages as well as colored pictures in the Introduction and Senior Section still dominiate the book.

David Palombi, Editor-in-Chief and Louis Bruni, Associate Editor, have worked on Corristin every day after school since September for two to three hours a day to produce a Number One Yearbook. Sister Grace Pierre advises and directs staff members.

Talisman shows creative talent, artistic ability

The school's literary magazine, Talisman, an annual publication, displays the outstanding writing talents of students from all grade levels at SAH. The majority of printed articles in the magazine reflect the creative ability of members of Creative Writing class, taught by Sister Grace Pierre, Talisman adviser.

Within the magazine appear several types of poetry, prose, essays and short stories. Photographs and drawings illustrate articles as well as give artistic design. A general theme captured on the cover unifies all literary and artistic contributions.

Miss Georgiou accepts charge of Forensic Club

At the beginning of this school year, Miss Dorothy Georgiou assumed the Forensic responsibilities which Mrs. Joan Ruddiman terminated after two successful years in May 1978. For the third year, the English Department became the sponsor of oratorical contests.

Miss Georgiou works with a nucleus of five — juniors Lydia Haninczak, Tammy Anthony, Lynne Durastanti and sophomores Tracy Warner and Irene Gianopoulos — who will advance their skills to bring forensic honors to SAH.

On November 30 the school's Forensic Club hosted a meet for the area schools. Fifty-three students participated in the competition. Topics included the oral interpretation of both literature and poetry.

Throughout the year the SAH Forensic Club attends meets at neighboring schools.

To get the feel of arguing before an audience, Lydia Haninczak practices for Irene Gianopoulos and Miss Georgiou (on left) and Tammy Anthony and Lynne Durastanti (on right).

Andrew,
It's been 12 great years.
Never forget all the good times. It's been great getting to know you better this year.
Have a nice summer and good luck in the future — You deserve the best!
R.M.A. Colleen Smith

To a dear sweet beloved person, Lady, from Larry
And I still hate it!

Andy,
See — I really can't imagine 9A without the demons & you're one of them!
Good luck in Rutgers. I trust you to do well! I hope to run into you over summer — you live so close!!! See you later Take care!
Love,
L.F.

You're a super kid — better not change — or else!!!

Andy,
Good luck
in all you do
Remember all the fun we had especially in Bio. Biology I. I hope I see you over the summer
Keep in touch
Love
Emily

Andy
To a great kid who helped us through Anatomy in the library. You were a good friend all year round and I'm glad we got to be friends. Good luck next year. Have fun and don't forget Anatomy & Typing.
Richie Palmere

Andy-
To a super hardworker - my favorite typing class is yours - I'll miss you - Ms. Fabel

Andy,
I've had a good time this semester and I see you around
Bob Rosa

Andy,
There's not much time so I'll be brief. Just remember all the things since grammer school like the talent show and all our classes this year. Pack was the best.
Good Luck with everything in the future.
Doug.
